

FELIX ALVAREZ- LUNA

Violin, Piano,
Music Theory,
College Prep,
Technique,
Chamber Music,
& Sight-Reading

Felix graduated from the University Institute of Fine Arts and Science of Bolivar with a Bachelor's degree of arts in music education.

He was a former violinist and music arranger for some of the greatest Orchestras and string quartets in South America such as Symphony Orchestra of Bolivar, Colombia; Chamber Orchestra of Cartagena de Indias; and La Cuarta Octava in Colombia.

Although classically trained, he is experienced in other music genres such as pop, R&B, Rock, Gospel, Latin, and Brazilian music as soloist and assembles.

With eight years of music instruction experience, his students learn how to execute classical music on the violin which includes a solid foundation in technical requirements, music theory and sight-reading. His piano students receive a solid curriculum that will prepare them to sight-read, thoroughly understand music theory, technique, and they can choose to play classic pieces and/or popular music.

Find Felix on his Instagram page: @fabemusic93