

Rose Mathias

Beginner to Advanced Intermediate Piano
Vocal Coaching for Younger Children
Technique & Theory,
Sight Reading

Rose Mathias embarked on her musical journey at the tender age of 6, delving deep into the world of Classical piano. Since then, her fingers have elegantly navigated the piano keys, creating melodies that resonate with profound narratives.

With an unswerving dedication spanning over 11 years, Rose has become a seasoned explorer of the musical domain. Her tutelage under accomplished mentors, including Dr. Robert Holm at the University of South Alabama, has been instrumental in refining her piano skills. Beyond the keyboard, she also embraced her vocal talents, undergoing professional training under Dr. Joyce Sylvester from the University of Alabama.

Her achievements stand as a testament to her commitment. Among them, a notable 2X First Place recognition from the Schumann Piano Club of Mobile shines brightly. At the MMTA District Collegiate Auditions, Rose earned acclaim for her adept piano performance and her comprehensive grasp of music theory and has encompassed in-depth studies through numerous summer masterclasses offered by various esteemed universities guided by esteemed professors including; Dr. James Helton of Ball State University, Dr. Hannah Roberts from the University of Alabama, Dr. Michael Gurt from Louisiana State University, and Dr. Axel Lenarduzzi from the Claude Debussy Conservatory in Paris, France, Rose has garnered a wealth of knowledge from these immersive experiences.

Rose extends her musical pursuits by encompassing a sincere passion for nurturing young minds. Drawing from her experience as a devoted Nanny and student, Rose has cultivated a deep affinity for working with children. This same ardor is channeled into her role as an educator, imparting musical knowledge and inspiring a new generation of music enthusiasts.

Currently pursuing her music degree at RBI University in Tampa, Florida, she continues to refine her craft. In her capacity as an instructor, Rose Mathias strategically guides young learners, helping them unearth their own musical paths. By nurturing their innate talents, she empowers them to find their rhythm within the symphony of life—a legacy that will resonate through their musical endeavors.

