

JACK MALDONADO

Acoustic & Electric Guitar,
Electric Bass Guitar,
Sight Reading, Music Theory,
Technique, & Performance

Jack has been classically trained and been playing and performing with his guitar for 45 years. His passion for music began at an early age since both parents were musically gifted. His father was a trombone player as well as his mother and three sisters were a singer. They had a band that would travel all around NYC performing in churches. Jack and his siblings all attended the same performing arts school.

Graduated from the Fiorello LaGuardia High School of Music & Art and Performing Arts, he intensely excelled as a classic guitarist. Although prepared to continue his studies at any university for music, he went on to study Broadcasting and Sound Engineering and ended up working with the New York Yankees as a Radio Producer/Engineer and with CBS radio. For a few years he also owned and operated the Playin' Time Music School in New York City.

Fast forward, following his love for music and with over 20 years of experience in teaching students of all ages, he is providing a solid music foundation that ensures his students will love learning their instrument. He helps his students reach their goal across many music genres.

Currently, other than teaching Acoustic and Electric Guitar, Electric Bass, Sight Reading, Technique, and Performance Methods at our school, Jack is very active as a Music Leader and teaches music at his churches' Worship Ministry.
