

BRITTANY GADDY

Clarinet, Piano, Vocal, &
College Prep

Brittany is a 2017 graduate of Reinhardt University with a dual bachelor's degree in Music Education and Music Performance. She has 14+ years of experience playing the clarinet and 3+ years of experience teaching private clarinet lessons, middle school and high school band, Kindergarten-12th grade general music, high school and college marching bands, and general music in preschools and camps for individuals with special needs.

In addition to teaching, she is a well-rounded musician who has performed locally, nationally, and internationally in a variety of settings. Furthermore, she has performance experience in concert, symphonic, and marching band programs, orchestral and pit orchestra settings, as well as small ensembles such as clarinet choir, woodwind quintet, and trio ensembles.

Her passion for music is evident in the way she teaches and performs. Teaching music has enriched her life, and she delights in sharing these gifts and talents to enrich the lives of others. She loves teaching individuals who are eager to learn and ready to further their musical development!
