

ASHLEY ABRAHAM

Violin, Performance,
Music Theory, Sight Reading,
Piano (beginners & intermediate)

Ashley Abraham was born and raised in Miami, Florida. Early on, Ashley became interested in music and began playing the violin at the age of 5.

Her performance history is extensive and gives her that added edge when teaching her students. Her first serious musical experience was at age 17 with her performance attendance at the Summit Music Festival 2010, with Misha Vitenson, first violinist of the Amernet String Quartet.

In the summers of 2014 and 2015, she attended the Meadowmount School of Music, she studied with Sally Thomas of The Juilliard School. For three summers she attended Green Mountain Chamber Music Festival in Vermont. Prior to enrolling at The University of North Carolina School of the Arts (UNCSA) where she is graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 2021. At UNCSA she also received a solid preparation for piano and technique in order to complete her degree. Ashley also studied at Biola Conservatory of Music with very famous musicians and participated in numerous master classes with known artists such as the late Zvi Zeitlin, concert violinist James Ehnes, Jubal Fulks, Frank Huang and Sergiu Schwartz.

Ashley is passionate about teaching violin and piano. Her love for all things music is eminent as she has stayed active performing for the past 12 years. This brings the excellence into her classroom as she applies her skills and techniques to her students by providing a solid music foundation and learning experience.
