

ERIKA MALDONADO

Flute, Music Theory, Sight Reading, Performance
Techniques, Beginner Piano (for children of all ages)

Erika Maldonado holds an Associate's Degree in Performing Arts and has several years of experience in teaching piano and over 10 years performing and teaching flute from the beginning stages to advanced, including Live performances in her Church.

In addition to her professional experience, Erika has volunteered with church youth groups as well as partnered with other church leaders in creating theatrical productions for the community. She also spent time creating music curriculums, music summer camp concepts, as well as Live stage management and directing.

Erika is naturally enthusiastic and creative about teaching a solid yet fun curriculum that will encourage her students to enjoy music for the long run.
