& Music Theory

Cody is a graduate of Florida College having earned a Bachelor's Degree in Music with voice as his principal instrument. He studied under Mr. Tim Moore who is a graduate from Westminster Conservatory of Music.

Cody has always had an ear for music even though he didn't discover a passion until he was 18 years old. He grew up singing in church and he taught himself guitar with the help of his dad. When he went to a small college, he decided to try new things, so he joined a chorus and auditioned to be in a play and was bit by a bug. After that, there was no leaving music and performing alone. Within 7 years, he was singing in professional groups such as Opera Tampa and Opera Orlando.

Though his first musical love was musical theater, he quickly grew to love opera. As a Professional Baritone Performer, he has been in 6 operas, 2 operettas, and 6 musicals. Most notable was his performance as Fred/Petruchio in Kiss Me Kate and the cover for the Pirate King in Pirates of Penzance. Outside of performing, Cody enjoys musical theory and harmonization.

Cody taught music in a private school and ran a theater program for 3 years in which he directed 3 musicals and 2 plays. He loves working with students of all ages and works hard to keep the music fun and exciting. He is a very passionate and energetic personality.

An incredible honor that Cody has been awarded was in 2017 as 1st Place of the Tampa Bay National Association for Teachers of Singing.
